Seminars

Special Needs Planning 5-6 PM
Securing the future for persons with disabilities.
Roger Strege and Rozlyn B. Scott

An estate/trust specialist and an attorney will help identify and resolve unique life and estate planning issues, from the first to the last planning step, in easy-to-understand terms. Topics include protecting government benefits, establishing guardianship, preparing appropriate wills and supplemental needs trusts, avoiding family conflict, and reducing professional costs.

Navigating Adulthood With Your Child 6-7 PM
Sara Swan, Executive Director/Founder of Looking Forward Life Coaching

Many things change when you become an adult, and it can be challenging to navigate it all. With help from loved ones and some important pieces of information, the journey will have stepping stones instead of stumbling blocks. Objectives for this presentation will include:
• Defining Adulthood • Responsibilities of Adulthood
• Role of the Support Person • Skills Needed for Adulting

Accessing County Resources 7-8 PM
Waiver & Community Supports Social Workers • MnCHOICES Social Workers

This session will provide an overview of the process for accessing county resources, along with information about the supports and services available.
